of our citizens, and hereafter will be for the signatures of such as approve of it, and think such an idea is a good one. The only objects designed, are those set forth: "We, the subscribers, cirizens of Alexandria, looking to the proper development of the natu ral advant ges of the city, do hereby resolve ourselves into an association, to be called the 'Alexandria Progressive Association ' Our o :ject is to develope the great advantages offered to those who are disposed to invest capital in our city, and its adjacent counties.

"It is well known that we have a noble river, furnishing bet er navigation than that which Baltimore or Philad-lphia can boast; and that the largest merchant ship that ploughs the ocean can come to our wharves; that we have various ratiroads entering into our city from various points of the compas-from the South, Southwest, West, North and Northwest; likewise an excellent canal from the coal regions. In short that we are in easy communication with all parts of the country.

"We are surrounded by a fine district of cheap and fertile land, adapted to the growth of wheat, corn, oats, grass, tonacco, and especally grapes. Millions of dollars might be annually made by the raising of grapes alone, there is not a point on the continent that of-

"We naturally ask ourselves the reason why these great advantage- have no been improved; and answer that it has been in con-equence of a mistaken public policy, and the working of a certain prejudice engendered by our past insti-

"The causes of these prejudices and the ac companying policy of the past have vanished "It now remains for us to start anew in the race of improvement-to compete with other cities, and make Alexandria what its local advantages and Nature intended it should be .-This can be done and as one of the means for ac complishing it the following is proposed:

"A report has gone forth, and has been generally believed, that strangers do not receive at our hands, proper respect or protection-thus going far towards placing our locality in a relation towards the rest of the civilized world, like that of China or Japan, or some other Asiatic country, in which strangers from a civilized country would naturally avoid investing capital. "This foul calumny, we flatly deny, and we hereby pledge ourselves to our fellow-citizens, to strangers, and the rest of the world, that we shall make it our special business to see that persons from a distance settling among us, shall have justice done them in the courts, and under all other circumstances; and that we shall extend to them the right hand of fellowship and sympathy.

LAND SALES. - The land agency of Mr. Patrick McCracken has sold to Mr. R. T. Bush, of New York city, the tarm of Mr. R. D. Foster, in this county, containing 1100 acres of land, for $6,800 - one-halt eash, the remainder in twelve months.

Mr. McCracken has also sold a tract of land in this county, belonging to Mr. Wm. Simms, containing 676 acres, for $6,760 - half cash. We understand that Mr. S has been finding gold on this tract of land, and declines complying with the sale; a though sold for more than the price asked before the discovery of

Mr. McCracken sold also, yesterday, the farm of Mr. Wm. A. White, 2½ miles from town, on the Spotsylvania C. H. road, containing 98 acres, to Mr. Michael Boyle, of Philadelphia, for $1,250-$1,000 of which was paid down in cash. - Fredericksburg Herald.

[All these, and hundreds of other sales of land in Virginia to Northern men, completely disprove the slanders, and calumnies of the Northern Radicals, about its being impossible for Northern men to live in the South, &c.]

At the monthly meeting of the Board of Trade of Baltimore, the Committee on Commerce, to whom had been referred a resolution asking the consideration of the cotton tax imposed by the Government, reported that, in their opision, the same should be repealed, as being an unnecessary and nojust burden on both producers and consumers of the article in this country, and as tending to promote its production in other countries and diminish it is our own country. A ready European markets are becoming greatly in tependent of American-Rown cotton in cons quence of the largely increased growth of cot on in India a d Egypt.
